

The Decorative Arts Association of Cooper-Hewitt Museum
and
The Majolica International Society

invite you to a special lecture
Monday, April 26, 1993
3:00 p.m.

DESIGNERS AND THE MINTON CHINA WORKS
by Joan Jones
Curator of the Minton Museum Stoke-on-Trent, England
and
a collectors' round table

COLLECTING 19TH-CENTURY CERAMICS with Joan Jones • Dr. Marilyn Karmason, Collector and Author • Leo Lerman, Collector and Editorial Advisor to Condé Nast Publications • Letitia Roberts, Senior Vice President and Director of the Department of European Ceramics and Chinese Export Porcelain, Sotheby's
Charles Washburne, Dealer in Victorian Majolica

A sherry reception follows

*Due to limited space, this event is open only to members of the DAA and MIS.
Please reserve your place with the enclosed form before April 22, 1993.*

THE DECORATIVE ARTS ASSOCIATION AND THE MAJOLICA INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY
Special Lecture and Collectors' Round Table on April 26, 1993.

I/we wish to reserve _____ place(s) for the lecture.

Cost for the lecture, roundtable and reception: $15

A check is enclosed for _____

Please make check payable to: The Decorative Arts Association, CHM

Name: _____

Address: _____

City, State, Zip _____

Telephone _____ Telefax _____

Membership affiliation: _____ The Decorative Arts Association

_____ The Majolica International Society

Please return this form to: The Decorative Arts Association, Cooper-Hewitt Museum
2 East 91st Street, New York, New York 10128